We would by me neans recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good-pasticularly for infants. But of this Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a bless ing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains quiet sieep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. We are entirely opposed to the provalent practice of drugging infants, and would sooner lose out night's rest than consent to such a course. But here is an article which works to perfection, and which is barmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little therub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable.
